

2023 HEART Show

Call for Submissions

Turning Point Domestic Violence Services is seeking pieces of art for our HEART Show on Oct. 13, 2023.

The goal of this show is to raise awareness surrounding domestic and dating violence and to utilize art as a means of prevention.

For more information, contact
Stephanie Cunningham at stephaniec@turningpointdv.org or 812-900-2153.

Guidelines for Submissions

- Submissions can include 2D and 3D art. Digital art can be submitted if it can be printed.
- Art can be submitted in one of three following categories:
 - Student Artist – for students in grades 7-12
 - Emerging Artist – for college students and community members
 - Professional Artist – for practicing artists
- All art needs to be submitted with a brief statement describing the artist's intention or meaning behind the piece.
- Artists need to state if their piece is for display only or if they are willing to donate the piece to be sold, with proceeds benefitting Turning Point programming. All pieces that are display only and any unsold pieces will be returned to artists after the show.
- All requests for entry must be received by September 30, 2023. To enter, please contact Stephanie Cunningham at stephaniec@turningpointdv.org or 812-900-2153. All submissions must be received by October 6, 2022.

Suggested Prompts

The following prompts are suggestions and not required. Artists are encouraged to express what they feel is important.

Potential Prompt for Survivors

- What would you say to a friend in a similar situation?
- What healthy relationship advice would you give to your younger self?
- What has been helpful, or could have been helpful, for you?
- What is something that you needed to hear or wish someone would have told you?

Potential General Prompts

- How are you working to eliminate and prevent dating and domestic violence?
- How would you support a friend or loved one experiencing abuse?
- How do you define healthy relationships?
- How can you be an empowered bystander?
- What healthy relationship advice would you give to your younger self?
